

Spring in the UK Quiz

Here are some typical flowers you can see in the UK every spring.

Can you name them?

S _____

snowdrops

These are the first flowers to appear every year, even when there's snow!

A snowdrop close-up

C _____

CROCUS

The spice saffron comes from the saffron crocus flower.

d _____

daffodils

The daffodil is the national flower of Wales and it's also the symbol of the Marie Curie cancer charity

b _____

bluebells

Bluebells grow wild in many British woods.

t

tulips

The tulip is the national flower of Afghanistan.

h _____

hyacinths

Hyacinths are a symbol of the Persian New Year (Nowruz).

Here are some sayings about spring, can you fill in the blanks?

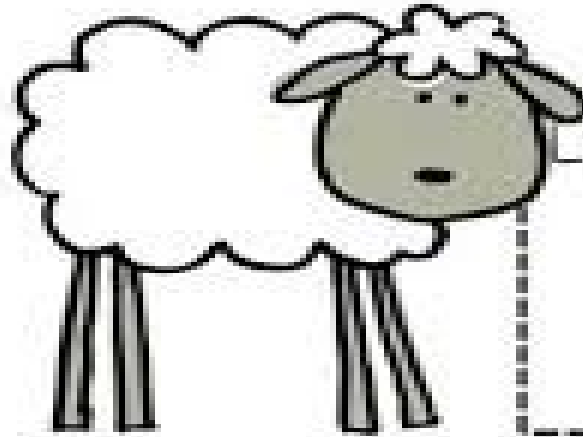

March comes in like a _____ and goes out like a _____.

(clue: a fierce animal and a gentle animal)

April _____ bring May _____.

(clue: the two words rhyme)

March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb.

Lamb Weather:

- ~pleasant
- ~gentle
- ~nice
- ~calm

Lion Weather:

- ~unpleasant
- ~rough
- ~windy
- ~rainy

© 2005 The McGraw-Hill Companies

April showers bring May flowers.

